MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of Falmouth Community Television is to provide the community with access to information technology and training in its use so that individuals and groups have a forum to communicate their ideas, information and concerns to the community-at-large.

As a non-profit organization, FCTV is committed to expanding community access to its facilities by seeking out and offering its members additional information avenues.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, DEBRA ROGERS

For the past 19 years, we at FCTV have seen significant changes in our facility, in the growth of membership, the quality and quantity of programs and most of all the expectations of our community. Thankfully our members and supporters have supported us in meeting the expectations of our Falmouth neighbors and continue to give generously of their time and their dollars.

2010 was a busy year in which we continued to show growth. We are pleased to present this annual report and highlight many of our accomplishments of 2010, some of which include:

- Go live with FCTV - Channel 15, our new Government Access Channel.
- Work with the Falmouth Emergency Operations Center to assist with the dissemination of critical information about the Town-Wide Boil Water Alert and Hurricane Earl.
- Coordinate weekly Citizen Journalism forums, empowering members to actively participate in the process of collecting, reporting and analyzing local news and information stories in an easy-to-digest fashion using Zi8 cameras.
- Bringing together twelve FCTV members to compete in the first ever Movie Making Boot Camp designed to teach the art of narrative video production to volunteer producers.
- Partner with community leaders and local organizations to recognize and celebrate our First Amendment rights during Freedom of Speech Week.
- In partnership with FCTV volunteers, provide live coverage of the Comprehensive Wastewater Management Plan Review Committee meetings.
- Receive a grant from Cape Light Compact to update lighting throughout the facility including new studio lights.
- Partner with the Gus Cauty Recreation Center on annual summer youth workshops.
- Participate in the Falmouth Chamber of Commerce Preserve America promotion.
- Assist in the installation of emergency override of local community channels from Falmouth Fire Rescue on Main Street.
- Produce the monthly Village Green Magazine program which provides an outlet, training vehicle and springboard to new and existing volunteers who videotape and edit shorts about our community and its citizens.
- Awarded first place from the Alliance for Community Media, Northeast Region for the Village Green Magazine show in the News and Magazine format category.
- Presentation of FCTV Summer Lecture Series featuring Producer/Director Michael Bavaro (June), and “Boy Band” Producer Andrea Ajemian (July).
- Update equipment including the addition of an iPad Teleprompter system, Kodak Zi8 digital cameras, LCD monitors, QVidium which allows FCTV to go live from outside locations using broadband Internet, iMAC editing system, Apple boxes and C-stands.
- Continue live streaming and expand video on demand.
- Provide youth-oriented training in the form of workshops, camps and ongoing kids’ clubs, expanding the number of regular clubs from one to two and offering summer and vacation programs for youth.
- Recognition by the Falmouth Rotary of FCTV community impact.
- Hold two PSA Days to provide studio and production crew to Falmouth non-profit organizations.
- Provide staff coverage of the Falmouth Road Race, Falmouth Christmas Parade, Town Meeting and Selectmen Meetings while also coordinating volunteer coverage of several other government meetings and community events.
- Obtain grants from Falmouth Road Race, Cape Light Compact and Shaw’s Supermarket.

- Continue “green” initiatives.
- Work with the Town of Falmouth on new cable license.
- Offer twelve interesting and unique gallery shows.
- Provide twenty different new and enhanced training opportunities to 532 students in 176 classes.
- Hold several fundraisers throughout the year including the Holiday Party & Silent Auction at Nimrod Restaurant, Puritan Cape Cod “Shop For A Cause”, Maser Gallery Art Auction, Town Meeting underwriting and Annual Appeal.
- Partner with the Samaritans of Cape Cod, Wings for Falmouth Families and the Falmouth Service Center to begin planning of community-wide televised auction.
- Provide career opportunities to Falmouth youth.
- Continue ongoing collaborations with organizations and community groups including the League of Women Voters, Falmouth Library, Falmouth Historical Society, Falmouth Chamber of Commerce, Falmouth Road Race, Police Athletic League, Historic Highfield and more.
- Continuing the work of the Computer Learning Center for Seniors, providing low-cost Internet and computer training to any Falmouth resident over the age of 50.
- Review and update procedures and implement new policies intended to provide enhanced oversight.
- Provide services to 593 members and untold viewers and supporters.
- Cablecast 613 hours of first-run, locally-produced programming and 393 hours of first-run, member-sponsored programming for a total of 1,006 hours of first-run programming in 2010.
- Provide computer literacy training to area seniors.

As you can see, we have enjoyed another year of significant accomplishment thanks to a dedicated staff, Board of Directors and volunteers. Thank you to everyone who contributed to FCTV’s success. We look forward to working together in the coming year.

Warmly,

Debra A. Rogers
Executive Director

EDUCATIONAL ACCESS CHANNEL 14

Falmouth Educational Access Channel (EdTV) has had an eventful year bringing Falmouth Public Schools' content to its viewers. With the work of many individuals including EdTV's Access Coordinator, Ryan Webber; Nick Riebesehl, student manager; and other student volunteers; EdTV continues to grow. A new automatically-updated program schedule and current weather report have been added to our bulletin board, which continues to provide information such as events, lunch menus, and sports schedules.

Shows are now broadcast 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. School Committee meetings continue to be broadcast live on Tuesday evenings, and are rebroadcast twice daily at 9am and 7pm. Morse Pond School's "Catapult!" is aired daily at 4pm as part of our kids' hour. Additional lineup items include the informative Parent Connection Series featuring topics such as Internet safety, bullying, and attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder. Music, choral, and band concerts continue to be broadcast on a regular basis as well as the schools' open house/meet the teacher nights. Special segments such as the FHS choral performance in New York City, and the live broadcast of the FHS Boys' basketball semifinals at the TD Banknorth Garden have added great variation to our standard lineup.

EdTV's main office has now moved to Falmouth High School with the completion of the FHS Renovation. A new editing suite, complete with an 8-core Mac Pro, has been completed adjacent to Falmouth High School's new studio. The design and implementation of this studio was a collaboration between Falmouth Public Schools and EdTV and is now being used by students and staff to produce content for both programs.

With the enthusiastic support of FCTV's staff, Falmouth Public Schools Superintendent Marc Dupuis, Falmouth High School's video teacher Barry Sadoff, and many others, EdTV continues to thrive.

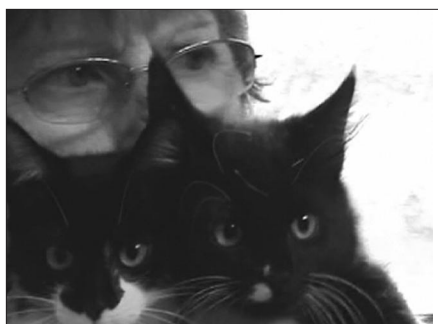

Ryan Webber
Educational Access Coordinator
