

Falmouth Community Television

DISCLAIMER

All productions using FCTV facilities and/or equipment shall carry the following full page credit for 10 seconds at the open of the program;

“The following program is a public access production of (Producer’s Name) and (Production Company), who assumes full responsibility for its content. The content of this program does not represent the views of Falmouth Community Television, which serves as a forum for community expression and offers TV training, production facilities, and channel time to all Falmouth residents and organizations. “

(It is recommended that this credit is done as a “voice over” as well as a written credit)

All productions using FCTV facilities and/or equipment shall carry the following full page credit at the end of the program;

“Production Facilities provided by Falmouth Community Television, FCTV-13”